Code of Conduct
I must be a MCRD San Diego Single Service Member or Geographical Bachelor (Spouse lives 100 miles or more away) in order to participate in all MCRD San Diego Single Marine Program (SMP) trips. I have to take the transportation provided by the MCRD San Diego SMP to and from all SMP trips (NO POV'S). I will show up on time for trips and stay for the entire event. All MCRD San Diego SMP trips are non-refundable. I understand fully that while participating in this event I am representing the United States Military and the MCRD San Diego Single Marine Program. I will conduct myself in such a way to honor both. I know I will be held to a high standard of the utmost ethical and moral behavior. I will be expected to act responsibly in a mature and dependable manner. I will be expected not to lie, cheat, nor steal. I will adhere to an uncompromising code of personal integrity, accountable for my actions and holding others accountable for theirs. Both my professional and personal demeanor shall be such that I may take pride in my actions. I affirm that all information entered on this document is true and correct. I understand this is my appointed place of duty. I understand that any misleading, incorrect or violation of these statements may result in the notification of my command SNCOIC and/or SgtMaj.
